CONDITIONS OF CONTINUED MEMBERSHIP

(Clause 7 of the LIA Constitution)

Membership of the Association shall be conditional on:

7.1 The compliance with the Association's Constitution and Code of Standards.

7.2 The regular payment of Membership Fees, attendance of the Association meetings and functions.

7.3 Should at any time after acceptance of an application for membership, it appear that the member had been accepted under misrepresentation; the Association shall have the right to cancel membership.

7.4 A member desirous of resigning membership should do so in writing to the LIA Secretary, together with any outstanding dues and/or fees.

7.5 If a member commits any wilful breach of the Association's Code of Conduct, Ethics or Code of Standards, the Regional Committee may suspend membership and the member concerned shall be afforded the opportunity of remedying or disproving any alleged breach, failing which the Regional Committee shall have the right to call upon such member in writing to resign.

7.6 The membership of any member of the Association may be terminated at the discretion of the Executive should such member not abide by the Code of Ethics and/or the Constitution or where a member is found guilty by the Executive of conduct which, in the sole opinion of the Executive is either dishonourable or derogatory to the character or prejudicial to the interests of the Association.

7.7 In the event of a member's membership being terminated for any reason other than non-payment of fees, such member shall have the right to appeal to the following Annual General Meeting against the decision of the Executive.

7.8 Any Certificate of Membership and benefit issued by the Association shall become null and void upon lapse of membership.

7.9 In order to retain full membership each Principal Member will be required to submit at least one project for evaluation every second year and achieve a minimum of 60%.
